SATELLITE-PROVOKED INCIDENTS ON THE YUGOSLAV BORDER

[This report supplements [redacted] which gave data from Borba of 14 Aug 52.] (b)(3)

At the bidding of the USSR and under instructions of the NKVD, Satellite countries bordering on Yugoslavia are systematically and almost daily carrying out provocative incidents on the border.

These incidents consist of sending spies and terrorists into Yugoslavia, wounding and killing border guards, UDB (State Security Administration) officers, militiamen, and civilians, and sending tons of propaganda material into Yugoslavia.

Of the total number of incidents, 356 were violations of Yugoslav territory and 252 violations of Yugoslav air space. These are incidents of such a nature that they can only be classified as deliberate aggressive acts, inspired by a war-provoking and nonpeaceful policy.

From mid-1948 until mid-November 1952, the Hungarian, Rumanian, Bulgarian, and Albanian governments provoked the following numbers of incidents classified as aggressive under international law:

	Hungary	Rumania	Bulgaria	Albania	Total	[Totals given in Borba of 14 Aug
1948	11	0	30	33	74	149
1949	149	38	145	110	442	633
1950	343	278	204	112	937	954
1951	793	432	186	106	1,517	1,734
1952	1,308	384	234	70	1,996	1,114 (up to 1 Aug 52)]
Total	2,604	1,132	799	431	4,966
